The new children's book by Barbara and Dirk Schmidt! A wild adventure at the most famous folk festival in the world, for which almost no one is too small (or large).

In the Munich Zoo a Penguin dreams of great freedom - he really wants to go to the Oktoberfest. One balmy evening in late summer, he breaks free and sets off for it. Bumper cars, roller coasters or the spooky ghost train - but how mean: He can't get into anything. He is simply too small. But then he comes up with a dazzling idea ...
